

Building on the success of its introduction and in response to the needs of our customers, Optronic Laboratories has introduced a line of spheres and accessories for the OL 490 Agile Light Source. Unique adapters for preferred output, Schott, Edmund Optics, and Volpi fiber optic bundles, custom collimator lenses, 6", 10", 18" and larger integrating spheres, and powerful software are available for increased performance and functionality of this already flexible and powerful instrument. Contact the factory for details and unique solutions for your application.